Newsflash

June 18th, 2015

Reciprocity with the States of Massachusetts and Ohio

In the Board Meeting of June 17, 2015, the State of Arizona Board of Chiropractic Examiners reviewed the licensure requirements in the States of Massachusetts and Ohio and has deemed them to be substantially equivalent to the State of Arizona's and voted to approve Licensure by Reciprocity with the State of Massachusetts and the State of Ohio. This reciprocal relationship means that the State of Arizona may grant licensure to Doctors of Chiropractic who hold a current license by examination in the States of Massachusetts or Ohio.

If you wish to apply for licensure by Reciprocity please review the Chiropractic Licensing Information and request your application by mail. With your request please provide a check or money order for $10.
