Renewal of Chiropractic License Online

The State of Arizona Board of Chiropractic Examiners is working towards the ability to offer online renewals for licensed chiropractic physicians. The online system should be operational by November 1, 2015. If you wish to renew an Active, Inactive or Retired license online visit www.chiroboard.az.gov after November 1, 2015.

If you receive a paper renewal, complete the form and send with payment, via check or money order, to the Board office. A blank form will be available on the Board website should a new copy be required.

Please note that the late fee for renewing your license after January 1st, 2016, is $200.00 as required by A.R.S. §32-923(D).

It is strongly encouraged not to wait until December 31, 2015 to renew your license. Paper renewals postmarked after January 1, 2016 will be returned as incomplete and will subject to the $200.00 reinstatement fee. As January 1 is a federal holiday the United States Postal Service will postmark mail deposited after collection times on December 31, 2015 with January 2, 2016.
